A BRIEF HISTORY OF LIBERALISM

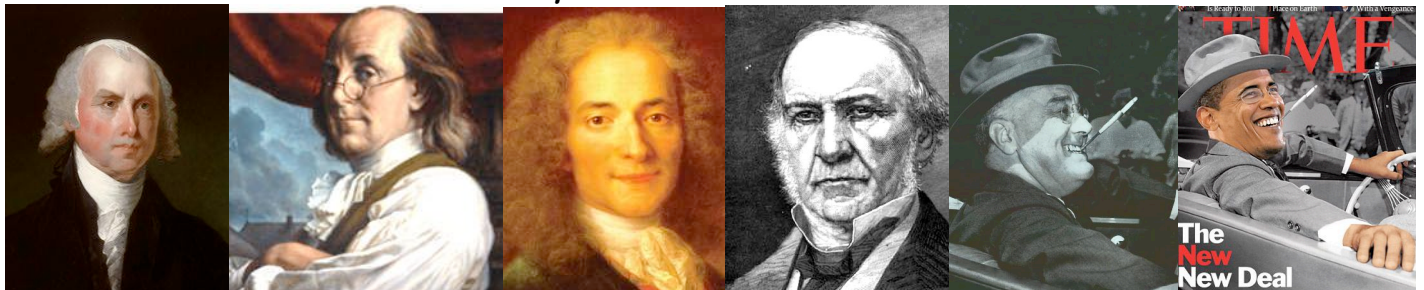

PROF. DENNIS MARTIN ALTMAN

THE LIBERAL RELAY TEAM

TWO THOUSAND YEARS IN THE MAKING

From Jesus to Locke to Spinoza to Jefferson to Paine to Adams to

Madison to Franklin to Voltaire to Gladstone to FDR to Obama

Yes, they're all connected. We trace the development of the Western Liberal tradition, from Jesus' secular ideas for living, to Obama's current program for economic recovery.

Surprising as it may seem, no historian has yet marked the progression of Liberal thought throughout the ages in this way. Altman shows the relay from each pivotal player to the next.
